

Trees and Childhood

When I returned native town in lockdown. It was not the town that I left. Modernization has not even spared our little town of Jamshedpur. It was the time when I realised importance of trees in childhood. So, I decided to spend some time working on this topic while working on this project.